

IUFRO
DIV8 2026
Patagonia, Chile

Victoria Concha Aqueveque

Victoria is a researcher focused on forest conservation and cavity-nesting birds and has been part of the long-term Nest Web Project in Chile, with over 18 years of avifauna monitoring. She currently works at the Polytechnic Institute of Bragança (Portugal) within the European USE4FOREST project, while also collaborating with ECOS Colab (Chile) on environmental education and science communication.